

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
INTERACT MINISTRIES, INC.
(As amended August 2006)

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That we, the undersigned, each being of lawful age and citizens of the United States of America, and of the State of Alaska, do hereby form a body corporate, and to that end, pursuant to and in conformity with the laws of the State of Alaska, do hereby associate ourselves for the purposes of organizing a nonprofit religious corporation and form such body corporate as herein stated.

I

The name of the corporation shall be: InterAct Ministries, Inc.

II

That the objects and purposes for which this corporation is formed are as follows:

1. For the spreading, furtherance and dissemination of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ through evangelical mission work and organizations in the United States, Canada, and other countries.
2. For the furtherance of mission work in every part of the United States, Canada, and other countries, by coordination of the work among the various individual evangelical faith missionaries in every spiritual and material way, counseling, acting as representative of, and by mutual consideration, strengthening the hands of those who are serving in remote stations.
3. For encouraging the preaching of the Gospel, radio broadcasting or television of Christian programs, publishing of printed material for spiritual education, training and teaching, as well as for publicizing the work of the organization, and by such other means as may be desirable by the Board of Directors of the corporation.

4. For the establishment of Christian grade schools, high schools, Bible schools, seminaries and colleges, as are deemed necessary to the accomplishment of spiritual training in the United States, Canada, and other countries.

5. For the authorizing of and certification of missionary technical and professional workers including teachers, doctors, radio operators, plane pilots, service members, and others needed for missionary assignment.

6. For the presentation of the needs of Gospel and mission work in the United States, Canada, and other countries to Christian people in the United States and Canada for their prayers and financial support where needed.

7. For the promotion of economic and community development activities designed to establish sustainable, job-producing businesses and provide business-ownership opportunities for disadvantaged populations in the United States, Canada, and other countries, consistent with the other objectives and purposes of the corporation.

8. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the activities of the nonprofit religious order shall be limited to religious, charitable, scientific, and educational purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as the same may be amended.

III

In order to carry out and effect the purposes for which it is formed, this corporation shall have the power to purchase or otherwise acquire, own, hold, use, lease, sell, exchange, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or to otherwise hold and dispose of and otherwise deal in and with real and personal property of every class, description and nature as the purposes of the corporation may require, and the corporation shall, through its Board of Directors, have authority to do all other things necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes for which the corporation is formed. Provided, however, that the highest amount of indebtedness or liability which the corporation may at any time incur shall not exceed fifty percent (50%) of the fair market value of all real property owned by the corporation.

IV

This corporation is one of eleemosynary nature, which is not organized for any pecuniary gain or profit to the members, it being understood that the means of financial operation shall be by free will offerings, bequests, devises, or gifts of any nature and any gain from operations will be utilized for accomplishing and carrying out the purposes of the corporation.

V

The duration of this corporation shall be perpetual and unlimited.

VI

Members in this corporation shall be regulated by the By-Laws of the corporation and shall be without limitation as to the number of members, except as limited by the By-Laws.

VII

The affairs of the corporation and its property shall be managed by a Board of Directors as fixed by the By-Laws. No Director shall be liable to the Corporation or to third parties for breach of duty as Director.

VIII

The interest of each member of this corporation shall be equal to that of any other member and no member shall be entitled to acquire any interest which will entitle him to any greater voice, vote, authority or interest in the corporation or in the affairs thereof than that enjoyed by any other member.

IX

The By-Laws of the corporation shall be adopted, and may thereafter be amended, altered, or repealed, only by a majority vote of all the members in full standing of the corporation.

X

No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of the donor, member, director, or officer of the corporation or to any private individual, and no donor, member, director, officer of the corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, or religious purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or corresponding provision of any subsequent United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine.

XI

These restated Articles of Incorporation correctly set out the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation as amended. They have been adopted as required by the law of the State of Alaska and do, hereafter, supersede the original Articles of Incorporation and all amendments.
